Santorini is arguably one of the most wonderful islands in the world, attracting thousands of visitors each year, so it is no wonder why that here you can find a great number of Luxury hotels, offering a wide variety of amenities and services.

Among these hotels, our new hotel Tholos resort is a real standout. Its top location right on the center of the island, in the picturesque Imerovigli village, makes access to all the sights and beaches easy, while its close proximity to Fira allows you to pay frequent visits to Santorini's capital and taste its vivid atmosphere and famous nightlife.

There are not many hotels that can offer such splendid vistas in combination with a wonderful location like Imerovigli and, if you add the luxury and comfort of its traditional suites and studios, then you know why Tholos Resort is highly ranked among the finest Santorini Luxury hotels.

Awarded by Trip Advisor for its excellent services for 2012, the management of the hotel raised the bar for higher targets for the next years, by adding new services and facilities such as the new hotel's restaurant specialized to the Greek Mediterranean cuisine, with an emphasis to the famous local raw materials and of course to the exceptional local wines of superior quality.
